CHALLENGE

A healthy liver is essential to normal nutrient metabolism and overall health. A unique internal organ, the liver plays many crucial roles in normal metabolism, including detoxification. A healthy liver can regenerate itself and deal with a wide range of toxic substances; however, prolonged and frequent exposure to toxins may influence the level of stress on liver cells and functioning. Fortunately, supplying the body with herbal compounds that have antioxidant properties and eliminating toxins from the body by maintaining normal bile flow can help keep your liver functioning at an optimum level. Liver DTX Complex gives your liver the tender loving care it needs.

LIVER DTX COMPLEX

Liver DTX provides your body with the nutrients it needs to maintain healthy liver function. Its unique combination of botanical ingredients features:

- Milk thistle seed extract to help make proteins that help regenerate liver cells*
- An Enhanced Proprietary Blend of Schizandra chinensis extracts, reishi mushrooms, herbs with antioxidant properties, dandelion extracts, turmeric, artichoke, and other herbs that maintain normal bile flow*

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM LIVER DTX COMPLEX?

- Active adults who want to support normal liver function over a lifetime of potential exposure to environmental and dietary toxins
- People whose lifestyle, dietary choices, or occupation may increase their exposure to certain toxic substances

HOW SHOULD LIVER DTX COMPLEX BE USED?

- The recommended serving of Liver DTX Complex is 3 caplets daily.
- Liver DTX Complex can be taken with or between meals.
- Not intended for pregnant or nursing women.
- For children under 12, consult a health care professional.
